Mr E W Stokes
Dear Sir
I write you a few lines this evening to let you know that I have sold seven express since I last wrote you I sold William Albert Ben and Leonard for $2675 each I sold July & Betty for $2900 each and Ananda for $2750. It is a very dull time and a hard matter to sell. It requires hard pricing to get out and some I am afraid I never will get out so I will send you by express five thousand dollars this evening and five thousand tomorrow & again the next day.
This money will well write soon I would send you more money but I think $5000 is enough to risk at the time as they are not responsible from the reading of their receipts. No news all looking for a big fight between Bragg and Rensselaer Yours Truly
A J Ben
